About your claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment

Dear Jane Doe

We are sorry to hear about your bereavement.

On 1 April 2026 you made a claim for a Funeral Payment from the Social Fund

For the funeral of Joe Bloggs

We have decided that you are not entitled to a payment.

This is for the following reason(s):

Neither you, or your partner, are getting a qualifying benefit. By a qualifying benefit, we mean one of the following:

- Child Tax Credit which includes an individual or disability element
- Housing Benefit
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
- Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Income Support
- Pension Credit
- Universal Credit
- Working Tax Credit which includes a disability or severe disability element

We have many different ways we can communicate with you.

If you would like braille,
British Sign Language, a hearing loop, translations, large print, audio or something else please tell us using the phone number at the top of this letter.

You may also have been eligible if you were getting a Support for Mortgage Interest loan.

If you have claimed any of the above qualifying benefits or tax credits or you make a claim within ten working days of making

Please turn over this claim for a Funeral Payment, and you are subsequently awarded that qualifying benefit or tax credit from a date within three months of the funeral then you can make a new claim for a Funeral Payment. You must make your new claim for a Funeral Payment within three months of the decision being made on the qualifying benefit or tax credit.

Please keep this letter, as you may need to refer to it again.

Yours sincerely,

Office manager

If you disagree with a decision

You can ask us to explain our decision

You, or someone who has the authority to act for you, can phone or write to us within one month of the date on this letter to ask us to explain our decision in writing.

You can also ask us to reconsider a decision

Tell us if you have more information, or if you think we have overlooked something which might change the decision. Do this within one month of the date on this letter.

We will look at what you tell us and send you a letter to tell you what we have decided, and why. We call this letter a Mandatory Reconsideration Notice.

When you have done this you can appeal

If you disagree with the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice, you can appeal to a tribunal.

You must wait for the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice before you start an appeal.
