About your claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment

Dear Jane Doe

We are sorry to hear about your bereavement.

You made a claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment on 1 April 2026 to help pay for the funeral of Joe Bloggs.

We have decided that you are eligible for a payment of £1,569.53.

How we worked out your Funeral Expenses Payment

Funeral cost	Initial amount awarded
Burial costs	£650
Burial plot	£400
Other funeral costs	£1,000

We have many different ways we can communicate with you.

If you would like braille, British Sign Language, a hearing loop, translations, large print, audio or something else please tell us using the phone number at the top of this letter.

The total initial amount awarded is £2,050.

You have told us there is money from Joe Bloggs' estate to help pay for the funeral. We have deducted this from the amount we can pay.

Total initial amount awarded for funeral	£2,050
Minus money from bank accounts	£480.47
Total Funeral Expenses Payment	£1,569.53

Explanation of your payment

Funeral costs we can pay for in full

We can pay for burial costs in full.

Funeral costs we can pay part of

There is a maximum amount we can for pay for certain funeral costs. This amount is set by the local authority where Joe Bloggs lived.

The maximum we can pay for burial plot is £400.

Other funeral expenses

The maximum we can pay for other funeral expenses is £1,000. This amount is set by the law.

Money from the person who died

We have to take into account any money from the person who died when working out how much we can pay.

You have told us there is £480.47 in bank accounts. We have deducted this from the amount we can pay.

How you will receive your payment

Your bank details are known to us but have not been stated in this letter for security reasons. Any payment will be paid into this account.

You can check the Funeral Payment on your account statement. Your statement will show the reference number shown at the top of this letter next to the payment from us.

You will receive this payment on 1 May 2026.

Payment to your bank or building society

You should check the account to see how much is paid in. If you think the payment is wrong, you should get in touch with us straight away. We will check your payment and tell you what will happen.

If the account goes overdrawn, the bank or building society may not let you take any money out of the account. Talk to the bank or building society if this happens. You should also tell us.

What you need to do next

A funeral payment has to be repaid out of the estate, if there is one. An estate is all the money, property and other things owned by the person who has died. But we do not count a home occupied by a widow or widower, or personal possessions left to relatives.

To help us decide if the funeral payment must be paid back, please fill in the reply sheet we have sent with this letter. Send it back to us within 14 days of this letter. You can use the envelope we have sent you. If someone else is dealing with the estate, please tell us his or her name.

Yours sincerely,

Office manager

If you disagree with a decision

You can ask us to explain our decision

You, or someone who has the authority to act for you, can phone or write to us within one month of the date on this letter to ask us to explain our decision in writing.

You can also ask us to reconsider a decision

Tell us if you have more information, or if you think we have overlooked something which might change the decision. Do this within one month of the date on this letter.

We will look at what you tell us and send you a letter to tell you what we have decided, and why. We call this letter a Mandatory Reconsideration Notice.

When you have done this you can appeal

If you disagree with the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice, you can appeal to a tribunal.

You must wait for the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice before you start an appeal.
