About your claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment

Dear Jane Doe

We are sorry to hear about your bereavement.

You made a claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment on 1 April 2026 to help pay for the funeral of Joe Bloggs.

We have decided that you are not eligible for a payment.

Why you are not eligible for a Funeral Expenses Payment

You cannot get a Funeral Expenses Payment because you are not getting, or waiting to hear about one of the following benefits:

- Universal Credit
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Pension Credit
- Housing Benefit
- Support for Mortgage Interest

We have many different ways we can communicate with you.

If you would like braille, British Sign Language, a hearing loop, translations, large print, audio or something else please tell us using the phone number at the top of this letter.

If you are eligible for a benefit but have not applied yet

You should apply for the benefit and then make a new claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment.

Please turn over

Your benefit claim must be awarded within 3 months of the funeral taking place. You must make a new claim for a Funeral Expenses Payment within 3 months of that decision.

Yours sincerely,

Office manager

If you disagree with a decision

You can ask us to explain our decision

You, or someone who has the authority to act for you, can phone or write to us within one month of the date on this letter to ask us to explain our decision in writing.

You can also ask us to reconsider a decision

Tell us if you have more information, or if you think we have overlooked something which might change the decision. Do this within one month of the date on this letter.

We will look at what you tell us and send you a letter to tell you what we have decided, and why. We call this letter a Mandatory Reconsideration Notice.

When you have done this you can appeal

If you disagree with the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice, you can appeal to a tribunal.

You must wait for the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice before you start an appeal.
